

INVITATION TO A FELT EXHIBITION

24.1.2019

FELT EXHIBITION "SOMETHING RED"

Time: July 1st until August 4th 2019

Opening: Sunday June 30th 2019 at 4 pm

Venue: Kivipankki gallery, Jämsä

Like the name of the exhibition already reveals, the theme is abstract and free. The works have not been specified. Each felt maker can make her felt piece based on her own imagination bearing in mind that there has to be something red in the work.

The international works and guests come next summer from Ireland, Feltmakers Ireland association. The Irish felt makers have accepted our invitation and they will create their works using the same theme.

Registration: latest June 6th either via the form on Filtti website or by email to sirpa.mantyla@filtti.fi

If you have a photo of your work, kindly send it by June 15th.

Sending of works: Please send you work to Jämsä, so that it is here latest on Tuesday June 25th.

Delivery address: Finnish Felt association Filtti /c Sirpa Mäntylä

Varistaipaleentie 6 A 21

42100 Jämsä AM2076

puh. 0451304777

Kindly drop a note of the delivery by email.

All works of Filtti members will be juried. All works will be photographed and there will be a slide show, which is on tv screen in the gallery during the exhibition and on Filtti website later.

Felt graffiti will be mantled again this summer. In case you have some felt products which can be fitted into the gallery garden, please send them in June using the address above. We will gladly accept new items!

We hope this exhibition is to your interest.
